

Jinx McDonald Interior Designs is proud to announce that Beth Walker-Fenton has passed the NCIDQ exam to become a fully licensed Interior Designer. By passing the NCIDQ exam, Beth has earned the industry's highest standard of proficiency in interior design principles.

As an NCIDQ Certified interior designer, Beth has proven her knowledge of current standards established to protect public health, safety and welfare, as well as mastery of aesthetic considerations. She has demonstrated a specific set of core interior design competencies, supported by numerous years of verified work experience and a Bachelor's degree in the field.

“Beth is already an award-winning Design Associate and has been an asset to our design firm for four years. This is just the cherry on top; we are very proud of her!” said Jinx McDonald, President of Jinx McDonald Interior Designs.

Jinx McDonald Interior Designs is a boutique high-end residential design firm that has been well established in Naples for nearly twenty years. The firm boasts a high ratio of licensed interior designers on its design staff of seven, with four being fully licensed.
