

JMID's Beth Walker-Fenton and Janine Blume Contribute Their Design Expertise to The Champions for Learning New Center for Innovation

Jinx McDonald Interior Designer's, Beth Walker-Fenton and Janine Blume extended their design knowledge and resources to aid in the design of the new Frank and Ellen Daveler Center for Innovation in Learning. Throughout the course of three months, both designers worked in selecting background finishes, flooring and counter tops, cabinets and hardware, fabrics and furniture, and paint colors. Beth and Janine created a very flexible and versatile learning environment that functions well for the range of activities happening at the center.

About Champions For Learning:

Champions For Learning, the education foundation in Collier County, is an independent, community-based, non-profit 501 (c) (3) organization and has been awarded the highest four-star rating for sound fiscal management and commitment to accountability and transparency by Charity Navigator.

For more than 30 years, Champions For Learning has served a unique role in bringing the community together to support a culture of learning and innovation. Their mission is to create life-changing learning experiences for every student; with a vision of a community that is 100% engaged in support of student success.